6. YOUR RIGHTS TO END THE CONTRACT

6.1 You can always end your contract with us. Your rights when you end the contract will depend on what you have bought, whether there is anything wrong with it, how we are performing and when you decide to end the contract:

(a) If what you have bought is faulty or misdescribed you may have a legal right to end the contract (or to get the Services updated or to get some or all of your money back), see clause 9;

(b) If you want to end the contract because of something we have done or have told you we are going to do, see clause 6.2;

(c) If you have just changed your mind about the Services, see clause 6.3. You may be able to get a refund if you are within the cooling-off period, but this may be subject to deductions and you may have to pay parts of the contract which we have already performed for you;

(d) In all other cases (if we are not at fault and there is no right to change your mind), see clause 6.7.

6.2 Ending the contract because of something we have done or are going to do. If you are ending a contract for a reason set out at (a) to (c) below the contract will end immediately and we will refund you in full for any Services which have not been provided and you may also be entitled to compensation. The reasons are:

(a) there is a risk that supply of the Services may be significantly delayed because of events outside our control;

(b) we have suspended supply of the Services for technical reasons, or notify you we are going to suspend them for technical reasons, in each case for a period of more than one month; or

(c) you have a legal right to end the contract because of something we have done wrong (including because we have provided our Services late).

These rights, under the Consumer Contracts Regulations 2013, are explained in more detail in these terms.

For full information on this please refer to the refund policy found on Arise Academy website.

6.4 When you don't have the right to change your mind. You do not have a right to change your mind in respect of the Services which we have already provided to you and there is nothing wrong with them.

To see when your account will close, please check the verification email that was sent to you when you signed up as that would be your start date. - 6.6 Billing Cycle. Upon purchase of the services you enter in 30 days rolling contract. The subscription fee for the Arise Academy services will be charged to your Payment Method used to purchase the service every 30 days. The length of your billing cycle will depend on the type of subscription that you choose when you sign-up for the service. In some cases, your payment date may change, for example if your Payment Method has not successfully settled or if your paid membership began on a day not contained in a given month.

- 6.7 Changes to the Price and Subscription Plans. We may change our subscription plans and the price of our service from time to time; however, any price changes or changes to your subscription plans will apply no earlier than 30 days following notice to you.

- 6.8 Ending the contract where we are not at fault and there is no right to change your mind. Even if we are not at fault and you do not have a right to change your mind (see clause 6.1), you can still end the contract before it is completed. A contract for the Services is completed when the Services are provided and paid for. If you want to end the contract in these circumstances, just contact us to let us know.

Summary of your key legal rights

This is a summary of your key legal rights. These are subject to certain exceptions. For detailed information please visit the Citizens Advice website www.adviceguide.org.uk or call 03454 04 05 06.

a) If your product is digital content, for example a link to download an online webinar, the Consumer Rights Act 2015 says digital content must be as described, fit for purpose and of satisfactory quality:

b) If your digital content is faulty, you're entitled to a repair or a replacement.

c) If the fault can't be fixed, or if it hasn't been fixed within a reasonable time and without significant inconvenience, you can get some or all of your money back.

d) If you can show the fault has damaged your device and we haven't used reasonable care and skill, you may be entitled to a repair or compensation.

See also clause 6.3.

If your product is services, for example a FOREX trading course, the Consumer Rights Act 2015 says:

a) You can ask us to repeat or fix a service if it's not carried out with reasonable care and skill, or get some money back if we can't fix it.

b) If you haven't agreed a price beforehand, what you're asked to pay must be reasonable.

c) If you haven't agreed a time beforehand, it must be carried out within a reasonable time.

See also Exercising your right to change your mind (Consumer Contracts Regulations 2013).

10. PRICE AND PAYMENT

10.1 Where to find the price for the Services. The price of the Services (which includes VAT) will be the price indicated on our Website. We use our best efforts to ensure that the price of the Services advised to you is correct. However please see clause 10.3 for what happens if we discover an error in the price of the Services you order.

10.2 We will pass on changes in the rate of VAT. If the rate of VAT changes between your order date and the date we supply the Services, we will adjust the rate of VAT that you pay, unless you have already paid for the Services in full before the change in the rate of VAT takes effect.

10.3 What happens if we got the price wrong. It is always possible that, despite our best efforts, the Services may be incorrectly priced. We will normally check prices before accepting your order so that, where the correct price at your order date is less than our stated price at your order date, we will charge the lower amount. If the correct price at your order date is higher than the price stated to you, we will contact you for your instructions before we accept your order. If we accept and process your order where a pricing error is obvious and unmistakable and could reasonably have been recognised by you as a mispricing, we may end the contract and refund you any sums you have paid, unless we have already started providing the Services to you, in which case we may withhold a reasonable amount for the work we have done.

10.4 When you must pay and how you must pay. We accept payment with Visa Debit, Visa Credit and Mastercard. You must pay for the Services before we start providing them. You must pay for our Services in advance, in order to gain online access to them. The minimum you can purchase is one month worth of Services.

11. OUR RESPONSIBILITY FOR LOSS OR DAMAGE SUFFERED BY YOU

11.1 We are responsible to you for foreseeable loss and damage caused by us. If we fail to comply with these terms, we are responsible for loss or damage you suffer that is a foreseeable result of our breaking this contract or our failing to use reasonable care and skill, but we are not responsible for any loss or damage that is not foreseeable. Loss or damage is foreseeable if either it is obvious that it will happen or if, at the time the contract was made, both we and you knew it might happen, for example, if you discussed it with us during the sales process.

11.2 We do not exclude or limit in any way our liability to you where it would be unlawful to do so. This includes liability for death or personal injury caused by our negligence or the negligence of our employees, agents or subcontractors; for fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation; for breach of your legal rights in relation to the Services as summarised at clause 9.2; and under the Consumer Protection Act 1987.

11.3 We are not liable for business losses. If you use the Services for any commercial, business or re-sale purpose we will have no liability to you for any loss of profit, loss of business, business interruption, or loss of business opportunity.

13.2 We may transfer this agreement to someone else. We may transfer our rights and obligations under these terms to another organisation. We will always tell you in writing if this happens and we will ensure that the transfer will not affect your rights under the contract.

13.3 You need our consent to transfer your rights to someone else (except that you can always transfer our guarantee). You may only transfer your rights or your obligations under these terms to another person if we agree to this in writing.

- 13.4 Nobody else has any rights under this contract (except someone you pass your guarantee on to). This contract is between you and us. No other person shall have any rights to enforce any of its terms, except as explained in clause 13.3 in respect of our guarantee. Neither of us will need to get the agreement of any other person in order to end the contract or make any changes to these terms.
- 13.5 If a court finds part of this contract illegal, the rest will continue in force. Each of the paragraphs of these terms operates separately. If any court or relevant authority decides that any of them are unlawful, the remaining paragraphs will remain in full force and effect.
- 13.6 Even if we delay in enforcing this contract, we can still enforce it later. If we do not insist immediately that you do anything you are required to do under these terms, or if we delay in taking steps against you in respect of your breaking this contract, that will not mean that you do not have to do those things and it will not prevent us taking steps against you at a later date.
